

Investment Objective and Strategy

The investment objective of the Fund is to provide long-term capital appreciation by primarily investing in listed equities with a China focus. There can be no assurance that the Fund will achieve its investment objective.

The Fund seeks to achieve its objective primarily through exposure to companies established in China or those which, whilst established outside China, derive a significant proportion of their revenue or profits from business related to China. The Fund makes investments into companies that, in the Manager's opinion, have been undervalued by the market. There is no restriction on market capitalizations or industries in relation to the equity securities in which the Fund may invest.

Under normal circumstances, the asset allocation strategy is that at least 70% of the Fund's Net Asset Value will be invested in stocks of companies established in China or those which, whilst established outside China, derive a significant proportion of their revenue or profits from business related to China (including but not limited to investment in depositary receipts such as American Depositary Receipts), and, subject to an overall upper limit on onshore PRC exposure of 20% of the Fund's Net Asset Value, up to 20% of the Fund's Net Asset Value will be invested directly or indirectly in stocks listed in Shanghai (including stocks listed on the Sci-Tech Innovation Board (the "STAR Board")) and/or Shenzhen (including stocks in the ChiNext market and/or stocks listed on the Small and Medium Enterprise Board (the "SME Board")).

Fund Manager's Comment

Global equities continued to correct in September, driven by US long bond yields' move up. Despite the Fed's pause, its rate projection was more hawkish than expected. The "higher for longer" view was reinforced by still resilient economic activity, mixed inflation data and government funding worries in the US.

China showed signs of growth stabilization, with mild housing sales recovery, but lack of new easing measures ahead of the long holiday and deterioration in US-China relations resulted in a difficult month for Chinese equities. Golden Week consumption data, though generally back to or higher than 2019 levels, came in slightly below market expectations.

Post holiday, the Chinese government signaled RMB1 trillion in new stimulus to support the economy and the Central Huijin started to intervene in the equity market. Given the restrained approach to fiscal stimulus thus far, market expectations remain low. Against a "higher for longer" global rates backdrop and worsening geopolitics with the Israel-Gaza war, we expect sentiment to remain subdued and markets to be choppy near term.
